

IEEE IN 2030 CHALLENGE

WANT TO CHANGE THE WORLD?

Here's where you can start.

THE IEEE IN 2030 CHALLENGE CALL FOR PROPOSALS.

Think you have an idea that could spark real change for women in engineering, young professionals, or technology professionals in Africa? Right now, the IEEE New Initiative Committee is accepting seed grant proposals for short-term projects that could generate new programs, products, and services for engineers and technology professionals in underserved communities worldwide.

So if you think you have an idea that could change the world for people in these communities, submit it today. The deadline is 30 October 2017.

What is a seed grant?

Seed grant funding is used for smaller scale initiative projects and pilot programs that entail some risk and uncertainty necessary for innovation and growth.

Who can submit?

Seed grant proposals may be submitted by one or more IEEE Members or organizational units individually, or in cooperation with an IEEE staff group.

When to submit?

The due date for proposals submitted in response to this call is no later than 1:00 PM Eastern Daylight Time on 30 October 2017.

For selection criteria and to submit a proposal, visit
ieee.org/2030Challenge